

Ready-Mix, Asphalt and Aggregate Facilities

Sloan Mason Insurance Services offers an integrated approach to risk management for ready-mix concrete, asphalt and aggregate companies.

Each client has a team of skilled professionals providing customer-focused underwriting, loss control and claims needs along with account relationship managers who facilitate communications on all aspects of the account.

Loss Control

Loss control personnel specializing in the ready-mix industry are available to examine issues that impact safety, including management practices, physical hazards and regulatory compliance. This allows the underwriting team to customize strategies to reduce and eliminate costly risks and enhance workplace safety.

Claims Specialists

Each insured benefits from a claims liaison who serves as a central point of contact for client, broker, claims, underwriting and loss control teams.

Sloan Mason offers flexibility in structuring Workers Compensation and Employers Liability, Commercial Auto Liability and Physical Damage, Commercial General Liability and Umbrella Liability coverages.

Options Include:

- Guaranteed Cost
- Large Deductible Plan
- Self-Insured Retentions
- Combined Lines Loss Sensitive Plans
- Incurred and Paid Loss Retro Plans
- Captives
